WHO WE ARE

The St. Armands Special Business Neighborhood Improvement District (BID) is a municipal board of the City of Sarasota representing more than 60 property owners that comprise approximately 13 acres of land within St. Armands Circle. Run by a Board of Directors who themselves are property owners from the district, the BID works to enhance the level of City services and to fund projects within the district's boundaries to preserve and promote the charm and commercial sustainability of St. Armands Circle as one of the City's most unique and most visited destinations.

WHAT WE DO

The St. Armands Special Business Neighborhood Improvement District (BID) strives to fulfill the lofty goals of its founding family, the Ringlings. With fiscal responsibility, transparency, consensus-building and respect, the BID board enhances the appeal of St. Armands Circle through beautification initiatives, infrastructure improvements, streetscaping, events programming and more. With St. Armands' unique history and assets as a starting point, our vision is to continue elevating the Circle as not only one of the region's premier destinations, but a global attraction that continues to delight visitors and residents alike in our slice of paradise by the sea.
